

Leah Marie Bartlett

Leah Marie Bartlett, 67, former Bonners Ferry resident, passed away at The Dalles, Ore., December 15th following a short illness.

She was born March 1, 1902, at Oto, Iowa, the daughter of Walter and Hulda Livermore Aldrich. At four years of age she moved to Bonners Ferry with her parents, where she grew up and received her education.

In 1919 she married Robert L. Evans at Bonners Ferry, and made her home here except for a short period of time when she made her home in Sandpoint.

In 1948 she married Dave Bartlett at Libby, then made her home in Kennewick, Wash., until 1965 when she moved with her husband to The Dalles where she resided at the time of her death. She was preceded death by a brother, James Aldrich.

She was a member of The Dalles ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and a member of the Gray Ladies.

Survivors include her husband, at the home in The Dalles; two sons, Robert J. Evans, Dover, Idaho, and Edward W. Evans, Kennewick; three daughters, Mrs. Patricia Pomerincke, Reno, Nev., and Mrs. Lenora M. Killian and Mrs. Billie Peterson, both of Kennewick; her mother, Mrs. Hulda Brockley, Bonners Ferry; three sisters, Mrs. Nellie Kelson and Mrs. Margaret Kelson, Bonners Ferry, and Mrs. Selma Garrison, Troy, Mont.; also 21 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Dec. 19 at Hillcrest Memorial chapel, with Verl Hubbard officiating. Interment, directed by Hillcrest, was in Grandview cemetery. Pallbearers were Ray Mossman, Dean Casey, Jack Chance, Earl Lane, Roger Chance and Benton Teer.

The Herald — Bonners Ferry, Idaho
Thursday, Dec. 25, 1969 — Page 11

Organist was Mrs. Verl Hubbard and vocalists, Mrs. Hubbard and Elder Roger Anderson.