

Bonnors Ferry Herald, Thursday, Oct. 2, 2003

Richard Earl Breazile, 71, long term resident of Hillsboro, Ore., passed away unexpectedly at his West View Acres Home in Bonnors Ferry, Idaho, on Sept. 25, 2003. Private services were held at his home.

Richard was born on Sept. 20, 1932 in Nebraska City, Neb., to Otto E. and Martha Ellen Breazile. He attended schools in Hillsboro, Ore. And graduated from Hillsboro High School in 1951.

He entered the US Air Force and served as an aircraft mechanic during the Korean War. On Dec. 27, 1952 he married Patricia Ringle in Hillsboro, Ore. After his discharge he went to work as an insurance agent and worked as an agent/consultant until he retired in 2000.

After retiring they moved to a property North of Bonnors Ferry, Idaho, to be closer to family. He has resided at the family home until his death.

He was a member of the Hillsboro Elks Lodge, where he served as secretary for many years. He also enjoyed golfing, fishing, bow hunting, and the out of doors. His work was his life and his family his love.

Survivors include his wife Patricia Breazile of Bonnors Ferry, Idaho; daughter Debra Hampton and husband Richard of Sandwich, Mass.; sons Robert Breazile and companion Jennie Kelly of Bonnors Ferry, Idaho; Craig Breazile and wife of Bonnors Ferry, Idaho; brother Rodger Breazile and wife Thelma of Auburn, Wash.; and grandchildren Amy Herman and husband Randy, Kaitlyn Hampton, Daniel Ricker, Christopher and Sara Breazile, and Joshua, Nathan, Utaunna and Ben Breazile. Dylan Watson; nephews are Jon Breazile and wife Lana and Jason Hall and wife Amy.

In lieu of Flowers, donations in his name may be made to the Boundary Volunteer Ambulance, P. O. Box 441, Bonnors Ferry, Idaho 83805.