

6-20-2002 mmw

Bonner Ferry Herald

Helen Springer Collins, 71

Helen Springer Collins died at home in Moyie Springs, Idaho on Sunday, May 19, 2002.

Helen, a 23-year resident of Fort Collins, Col., moved to Moyie Springs, Id. in 2001.

Helen was born Oct. 4, 1930 in Atwood, Tenn. to John Martin and Dorthea Mae Springer.

She was a graduate of Colorado State University and a member of the CSU Women's Association and the CSU Alumni Association.

Helen was preceded in death by her husband of 30 years Col. (Ret.) Malcolm T. Collins of Fort Collins, Col.

She is survived by five children: Charles Collins of Fairbanks, Ak.; Deborah Waller of Baton Rouge, La.;

Cynthia Gibson of Evans, Col.; David Collins of Fort Collins, Col.; Amy Palmer of Moyie Springs, Id.; and seven grandchildren.

She is also survived by a sister, Margaret Ballard of Tupelo, Miss. and a brother, JB Springer of Memphis, Tenn.

Helen was buried at Ft. Logan National Cemetery in Denver, Col.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society of your local hospice chapter in Helen's name.
