Remedios (Remy) Davis, 60

Remedios Castaneda Davis was born in the Philippines on Jan. 24, 1944 and fell asleep in death on Aug. 14, 2004 at Highland Park Care Center in Alliance, Neb.

A memorial service was held on Aug. 21 at the Alliance Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

While in the Philippines, Remy was employed by the Marcos family. After immigrating to the U.S. in 1981, she worked on Martha's Vineyard as a pastry chef for a household that entertained dignitaries and movie stars.

In December 1981, she moved to Bonnors Ferry and married Robert E. Baker. Bob passed away in 1996. She worked at the Pink Lion, for Dr. and Mrs. Hall, cooked for Head Start and was a dietary aide for Boundary Community Hospital.

Remy moved to Alliance,

Neb. when she married John Davis, Sr. in June, 1999. She enjoyed her job as an aide in assisted living and thereafter worked for three years at Box Butte General Hospital in the medical records department.

Remy's main concern was pleasing God and helping others learn about the Bible. She had many interests: cooking, sewing, office work, enjoying her flowers and birds.

She was an industrious and cheerful person who always wanted things done "right."

She was preceded in death by her mother, father, stepmother, brother and first husband, Robert E. Baker.

Remy is survived by her husband, John S. Davis, Sr., four brothers and two sisters, four stepchildren, several grand- and great-grandchildren, and by her many dear friends.
