Bonnors Ferry Herald

Donna Mae Day, 59

Services were held on Oct. 17, 2002 at the First Baptist Church in Bonnors Ferry, Idaho for Donna Mae Simon Day, who died Oct. 12, 2002.

Donna was born Feb. 25, 1943 in Spokane, Wash. She was married to Duane Day on May 29, 1993 in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Donna leaves behind her loving husband, Duane; her parents, Otis (Curly) and Helen Simon; two children, Brian Steele and wife, Shana, of Spokane, Wash.; Ketta Everhart and husband, Jeff, of Bonnors Ferry, Idaho; a sister, Judy Anderson and husband, Bill, of Wyoming; grandchildren, a niece, nephews and friends.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Julie Ann Steele, and by her sister, Bea Simon Vicek.

Donna graduated from Bonnors Ferry High School in 1961. She enjoyed working with the public and her work history reflects that. Her employment included Taft's Variety, Bank of Idaho, Bonnors Ferry Herald and Boundary County Planning and Zoning Department.

She was past owner of Mode O'Day dress shop and at the time of her death was the bookkeeper of her husband's company, Day Logging.

Donna lived most of her adult life in Paradise Valley where she enjoyed gourmet cooking, working in her yard and spending time with her family.

Her marriage to Duane expanded her family to include his children and grandchildren and she took them all into her heart and home.

Memorials may be made to Hospice c/o Francis Lederhos, P.O. Box 1801, Bonnors Ferry, Idaho 83805.
