

Myrtle J. Dillard, 'Bobbie,' 86

Myrtle J. Dillard, "Bobbie," 86, was born Myrtle Jane Straight in Worley, Idaho, May 18, 1919 to Ralph and Marie (Jacobson) Straight. She married Hubert Dillard, Jr., "J.R.," on Feb. 4, 1944, in Vancouver, Wash. They raised four children while living throughout the Inland Northwest. She was a devoted wife, loving mother and a storybook "Nana."

"Bobbie" went to be with the Lord on Oct. 28, 2005. She was preceded in death by her husband, "J.R." Dillard, her two brothers, Clarence and Earl Straight, and three of her grandchildren.

She is survived by her sister, Iva Crisp, of Richland, Wash.; her four children, Donald Dillard of Cottonwood, Calif., Hubert "Skip" Dillard of Seattle, Wash., Darlene Pinkerton, of Bonnors Ferry, and Ralph Dillard of Sagle; thirteen grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

She was a truly kind and generous lady and will be missed dearly by her family and many friends.
