OBITUARIES

'Rusty' Wendall Fairbrother

"Rusty" Wendall George Fairbrother, 44, was found deceased at his Marshall Lake (Washington) residence on Aug. 3, 2004. An autopsy will determine the cause of death.

Rusty was born in Napa, Calif. on Nov. 29, 1959, the son of Edwin and Wendy (Peoples) Fairbrother. He worked in Wisconsin as a welder for Polaris snowmobile and jet-ski manufacturing.

He was an outdoorsman who enjoyed taking trips into the mountains, hunting and fishing. His other interests include photography, hot rods and driving snow machines and motorcycles.

Rusty's greatest pride and joy were his two children, Kayla Marie and Kyle George Fairbrother of Wisconsin. Although miles separated them, they remained close in his heart and soul daily.

He is also survived by his parents of Bonners Ferry, Idaho; four sisters, Beck Stottlemeyer of Oregon, Natalie (and Kirk) Miller of Sandpoint, Id., Jennifer (and Mark) Hepinstall and Melody Fairbrother, all of Sandpoint, Id.; four brothers, Randy Fairbrother of Sandpoint, Id., Don (and Julie) Fairbrother of Vancouver, Wash., Michael Fairbrother (and Sheri Oberlender) of Newport, Wash, previously of Bonners Ferry, Id. and Sandpoint, Id., Paul (and Laura) Lee of California; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family held a memorial Aug. 9, 2004 at Snow Creek Park facilities in Naples, Idaho.

Memorial donations are being accepted at all local branches of the Panhandle State Bank.

Rusty, you will be loved and missed by your friends and family.
