

Bonnors Ferry Herald
Thurs July 28, 2005

Kermitt Michael Fodge, 43

Kermitt Michael Fodge, 43, passed away on July 18, 2005 in Paradise Valley near Bonners Ferry. Memorial services were held Saturday, July 23, 2005 at the Bonners Ferry Funeral Home, Pastor Lowell

Carlson officiated. Inurnment followed at Grandview Cemetery.

Kermitt was born Jan. 22, 1962 in Rogue River, Oregon. He was the son of Tommie and Joyce Fodge.

He moved to Boundary County where he attended Valley View and Bonners Ferry High School.

Kermitt married Robyn Price on July 21, 1983 in Bonners Ferry, they made their home on Northside, later moving to Moyie Springs where they raised their three children.

After leaving high school Kermitt went to work in the woods, after several years he left the woods and went to work at LP Mill.

While at LP he worked many positions in the mill and he also learned how to operate the different equipment there, a job he greatly enjoyed. Kermitt enjoyed working with and riding horses, sports and John Wayne movies.

Kermitt is survived by his wife Robyn, three children, Michael, Nichole and Ethan Fodge, all of Bonnors Ferry. His mother Joyce Alterman of Othello, WA. Four brothers Sam, Glen and Zane Fodge of Bonners Ferry, Tommie Dennison, Othello, Wash. Five sisters Janice Farley, Othello. Amy Marcantel presently residing in Iraq, Pam Gall, Ill., Candy Tremonti, Kansas City, Kan., and Heather Andrews of Bonners Ferry.

Kermitt was preceded in death by his father Tommie Fodge, his sister Joyce, and his favorite uncle Paul Fodge.