

David Arnold Frazier

David Arnold Frazier, 62, passed away Nov. 28 at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane, Wash.

Funeral services will be conducted 4 p.m. Monday, Dec. 4, 2000, in Coffelt's Moon Chapel in Sandpoint. The Rev. Dave Olson of Sandpoint Lutheran Church will officiate. Interment and graveside service will be at the Fern Hill Cemetery in Menlo, Wash., Wednesday, Dec. 6 at 10 a.m. The Rev.

Gary Hagen of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Raymond, Wash., will officiate.

David was born in Raymond, Wash., on July 25, 1938, the son of Audrey S. and Julia Currie Frazier. He had played in bands and traveled as a country music entertainer. He was known as David Rainwater and formed the band The Raindrops.

David had played backup for many of Country and Western's greatest stars. He played six different instruments, including lead guitar and rhythm guitar. He also did impersonations of country stars and lead actors of the day. David credited his brother, Bob, for inspiring his drive and work ethic.

David had lived in Sandpoint for eight years.

He is survived by a sister, Dianne, of Port Orchard, Wash., and a brother, Bob Duel, of Taft, Calif.

Sandpoint
11-30-00 Daily Bee