Irene Glauner, 82

Irene Glauner died Oct. 16, 2005, at Boundary Community Hospital, Bonnors Ferry, Idaho.

Funeral Services were held Oct. 19, 2005, at the First Baptist Church. Burial followed in the Grandview Cemetery.

Irene was born April 7, 1923, in Chadwick, Missouri. She was one of twelve children born to Ida Bell Tabor and William Winfield Henslee.

The family moved westward on their way to Oregon but stopped in Hagerman, Idaho, where they settled. Irene moved to Bonnors Ferry in 1939 to marry her childhood sweetheart, Chester W Glauner. They were married at the Bonnors Ferry Courthouse on Nov. 18, 1939.

Irene and Chet spent their early years farming at their farm in Round Prairie. In 1953, the family farm was sold and they moved to town; Chet and Irene owned and ran the Glauner Marine and Sporting Goods Store until 1971.

Irene shared countless hours fishing and hunting with Chet and it was rumored that Irene caught the biggest fish even though Chet usually told a different story.

Irene's great love was for her family, her children and especially her grandchildren Jeff, Jason, Michael and Julie and her great grandchildren, Danny, Jacobi, Caleb, Jessie, and Ruby. They gave her great happiness, joy, and comfort.

Irene loved her church, and was an active member of the first Baptist Church in Bonnors Ferry. Flowers and gardening, sewing and her little dog Polly were dear to Irene's heart.

Irene was preceded in death by her husband, Chet, eight brothers, and her son Danny. Irene is survived by her daughter, Linda Guthrie and husband Steve, son Jack and wife Kate, grand children Jason Guthrie and wife Donna, Jeffery Guthrie and wife Nikki, Michael Glauner and Julie Glauner Orozco and husband Guy; great grand children Danny, Jacobi, Caleb, Jessie, and Ruby, her twin sister Florene Tracey, brother Lenn Henslee, and sister Lorna Jean Hansen.

The family suggests memorials may be made to the Fry Healthcare Foundation, 6640 Kaniksu St., Bonnors Ferry, Ill, 83805 or to the Children in Need Foundation, 1653 West 10th Street, Havre, MT 59501, for the San Vincente de Paul orphanage in Equador.
