Beatrice Halcro, 82, passed away on Monday, Nov. 12, 2001 in Sandpoint, Idaho.

Graveside funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 16, 2001 at Pinecrest Memorial Park. The Rev. David Olson from the First Lutheran Church will officiate.

Beatrice was born on April 15, 1919 in Saginaw, Mich., the daughter of Ralph and Sophie Murray. She grew up and attended schools in Saginaw, where she also graduated from high school.

Beatrice was a homemaker most of her life, but she had worked at the M & J Bakery and the Safeway

Bakery for about 12 years in the latter part of her life.

She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, knitting, fishing and camping. One of her favorite pastimes was collecting antiques, especially glass items. She was a member of the First Lutheran Church and the Eagles Lodge Aerie No. 589 in Sandpoint.

She is survived by a son, John Halcro, Sandpoint; three step-sons, Thomas Halcro, Robert Halcro and Dean Halcro; eight grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and a sister, Kathryn Kelley, East Tawas, Mich.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Ed; a brother and a sister.
