Ruth Mary Halverson, 82

Ruth Mary Halverson, 82, passed away on October 30, 2004 at the Boundary County Nursing Home in Bonners Ferry, Idaho. Funeral Services were held Nov. 3 in the Bonners Ferry Funeral Home with internment following in the Grandview Cemetery.

Ruth was born on Nov. 17, 1921 in Sagle to Leo and Florence (Lombard) Gudbaur. She attended schools at Copeland, Round Prairie and graduated from Bonners Ferry High School in the Class of 1939. She then attended Kinman Burliness College for two years where she studied Bookkeeping.

She worked in Spokane until the mid 1940s. In October of 1948 she married Milo August Halverson in Coeur d'Alene.

They moved to the Copeland area north of Bonners Ferry where they owned and operated Triangle Service Station from 1948 until 1963 and she did bookkeeping for the station and people in the area. She continued doing bookkeeping until 1986. She moved to the Community Restorium and later into the Extended Care of the Community Hospital.

Throughout her life she enjoyed crocheting, crossword puzzles and her flower garden.

She was also an avid reader and involved with the Boundary County Fair.

Survivors include two sons, Rick Halverson of Copeland, Idaho and Skip Halverson and wife Christy of Bonners Ferry; brother Ross Gudbaur of Sandpoint; six grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; 1 great-great-grandchild; and numerous nephews and nieces.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Milo; son, Gary Halverson; brother, Jack Gudbaur; and sister Evelyn Sperber.