Beryl Hope Harding

Mrs. Beryl Hope Harding, resident here 25 years, passed away at Community Hospital May 8 following a long illness. Services were held yesterday here with Rev. Kelvin Groseclose officiating. Interment followed at Grandview Cemetery.

She was born April 18, 1903, in Aitken, Minn., the daughter of Marshall and Nellie Neville Cannady. She married Charles F. Harding in Kimball, Nebr., on July 30, 1920. The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here last year.

Her hobbies included gardening and molded-resin work, and she has worked as a nurse's aide at the local hospital in addition to serving as secretary for two years of the WWI Barracks 1912.

Survivors include her husband at the home and three daughters Charlene Sommers; Lyman, Nebr., Shirley Serrahn, Concord, Cal., and Lois Swanson, Oklahoma City, Okla. A sister, Bernice E. Frahm, Torrington, Wyo., survives along with two brothers, Neil Cannady, Lyman, Nebr., and Keith Cannady, El Sobrante, Cal. Five grandchildren and four great grandchildren also survive.
