

Chancy Laverne Harrington, 74

Chancy
Jerald (Jerry)
Laverne
Harrington, born in Minnewaukin,
N.D. Dec. 28, 1929 to

Charles William and Hazel Irene (Newcomb) Harrington, passed away at his home on June 11, 2004 at the age of 74.

Raised in Moravia, Jerry grew up with a love and appreciation for the land and the outdoors. He enjoyed fishing, hunting and gardening. Most of his life he was a gypo logger and each new adventure and endeavor he set his hands to, always gave way to the lure of the forest as he returned to the occupation he loved.

Over the years Jerry was owner/operator of a Southside gas station (1955/56), owner/operator of a cafe known as "The Spot" near the old high school (1965), real estate agent for Don Shively Realty (1970) all in Bonners Ferry, Idaho; and owner/proprietor of Ione Hardware in Ione, Wash. (1975).

Jerry was a member of the Moravia Grange for many years and a member of The Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He reluctantly ended his logging career long after normal retirement. His hard work ethic remains a living legacy in the lives of each of his children.

He continued to work diligently and loyally for his employer through the day of his death. He spoke often to others of his family members and showed great pride in all their successes.

Jerry was married to Shirley Hollingsworth May 3, 1952, and had four daughters, Kathy, Mary Jean, Sheila and Cindy, divorced in 1970. Jerry then married Mary Goldsmith in 1970 and gained two stepchildren, Suzie and Diane, and had a son John and daughter, Debra.

Survivors include his wife of 33 years, Mary Harrington; three brothers, Norman Harrington, Mitchell, Neb.; Wayne Harrington, Monmouth, Ore.; and Dale Harrington, Sr., Bonners Ferry, Id.; seven children, Kathy Dupea, Lewiston, Id.; Sheila Lewis, Vancouver, Wash.; Suzie Smith, Libby, Mont.; Cindy Andrews, Spokane, Wash.; Diane McKay, Superior, Mont.; John Harrington, Curlew, Wash.; Debra Hanks, Maui, Hi. There are 21 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

His father Charles William, mother Hazel Irene, brother Charles and daughter Mary Jean preceded Jerry in death.

Funeral service will be held at Bonners Ferry Funeral Home on Friday, June 18 at 10 a.m. Final interment will be immediately following at Moravia Cemetery.

Family suggests memorials be sent c/o Jerry Harrington Memorial, 1420 W. 2nd Ave, Spokane, WA 99204.
