Nina Hauck, 73

Nina Bell Hauck, 73, passed away in Sandpoint on Friday, Sept. 26, 2003.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, Oct. 4, in Coffelt's Moon Chapel.

Nina was born in Libby, Mont., on Aug. 28, 1930, the daughter of Charles Clinton and Genia Adelia Evans. She graduated from Libby High School in 1948 and then attended Kinman Business College in Spokane.

She married Clifford C. Hauck in Coeur d'Alene, on Dec. 23, 1956. The family moved to Bonners Ferry in 1970, and lived on a cattle ranch, raising Charloais Beef cattle. She moved to Sandpoint in 1984, working for the Co-op Country Store. She also operated the Kountry Korner Craft Store in Sandpoint.

She was a member of the Lutheran Church in Bonners Ferry, and a former 4-H leader in Bonners Ferry. She enjoyed her children, the outdoors and crafts.

She is survived by four children, Joe Hauck of Hayden Lake, Harry Hauck of Bonners Ferry, Lisa Hull of Sandpoint and Kim Brown of Bonners Ferry; two sisters, Lou Henry of Caldwell and Charlene Prettyman of Sandpoint; and six grandchildren, Jodi Tucker, James Tucker, Erica Hauck, Kelly Hauck, Ashton Hauck and Bradley Brown. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband in 1981, her sisters, Della Monnett and Barbara Hammett; a brother, George Evans; and a grandson, William Wayne Tucker.
