Mary E. Hawkes, 94

Mary E. Hawkes of Lewiston passed away Tuesday, April 29, 2003, at St. Joseph Regional Medical Center. She was 94.

Mary was born Nov. 3, 1908, to John and Ida Stewart at Royal, Neb.

She married James Hawkes in Morcraft, Wyo., then moved to Idaho in 1933. She lived in Lewiston Orchards from 1943 until 1952 when the family moved to Bonners Ferry.

She worked in Ester's Cafe. In 1959, she moved to Lewiston. She worked at St. Joseph Hospital as a house-keeper until she retired in 1977. Mary then visited her daughters in Anchorage, Alaska, and Beaverton, Ore. Mary took trips to Hawaii and Mexico.

Mary like to crochet afghans and made quilts.

Mary is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Vern and Carole and Jim and Dorothy, all of Lewiston, and John Hawkes and Montana; and her daughters and son-in-law, Beverly Tucker of Clarkston, Eleanor and Dale Hennings of Laughlin, Nev., and Ora Odematt of Lewiston. She has 25 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren;and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Hawkes in 1956; a daughter, Shirley Borses in 1981; her parents; five brothers; two sisters; one granddaughter; and one great-granddaughter.

Mary was loved by all of the people who knew her. She always had a habit of making you feel better when you talked to her.