

Robert Hewett, 91

Robert W. (Bob) Hewett, 91, passed away at his home in Bonners Ferry, on July 13, after an extended illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 17, at 11 a.m. in the Trinity Lutheran Church in Bonners Ferry with internment following in the Grandview Cemetery.

Bob was born on Jan. 15, 1911 in Bonners Ferry. His parents were William J. and Berthilde Hewett.

Bob lived in Boundary County all his life.

He attended Southside

School and Bonners Ferry High School.

As a young man, he followed logging with enthusiasm and bought his first truck in 1933.

From 1935 until his retirement in 1975, he was pretty much on his own in logging operations. From 1951 until 1975 he was a contract logger for J. Neils Lumber Company in Libby, Mont.

Robert Married Clara G. Peck in Bonners Ferry on June 17, 1947.

They lived on the Peck farm in Curley Creek until moving to Bonners Ferry in 1991.

Bob and Clara were involved in community projects, their church, traveling and pinochle at the Curley Creek Community Hall and the Senior Citizen's Center in Bonners Ferry.

Survivors include his wife, Clara, of Bonners Ferry; a niece, Sue O'Neill, and her husband, Phil, of Troy, Mont.; a niece, Shirley Allenton, and her husband, Don, of Colville, Wash.; a nephew, Ed Hewett, and his wife, Ann, of Abilene, Texas and several great nieces, nephews and cousins.
