Alfred 'Jack' Hooten, 77

Alfred "Jack" Hooten, 77, passed away on Feb. 22, 2004 at the Urgent Care of the Community Hospital in Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

Memorial Services were held on Friday, Feb. 27, 2004 in the Wellsprings Community Center in Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

Jack was born and raised on a ranch near Lyman, Wyoming where he remained and raised his family while working at his ranch and as a ironworker.

In 1975 an opportunity in construction supervision led him to Alaska. In 1983 he moved to Bonners Ferry, Idaho where he worked at his true love, raising and training horses.

Jack loved his wife, family and pets very much and cherished the time he spent with them.

He was also blessed with many good friends who he held dear. He enjoyed working with youth in equine activities.

He was a veteran and member of the American Legion, Masonic Lodge and Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He is survived by his wife, Maureen; five children: Clinton; Clair and wife Lettis; Paul; Patricia Titmus and husband Judd; and Pam Nash; nine grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

The family suggests that memorials be sent to your local 4-H Horse Program.
