Sid Hurst, 57

Sidney Vern Hurst, 57, passed away June 30, 2002 after an extended illness at Boundary Community Hospital in Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

Born April 19, 1945 in Bonners Ferry, Id., Sid had lived most of his life in Boundary County. Except for working for the Ford automotive factory in California for a year in 1965 and living in Boise in 1999, Sid's life centered primarily in the Bonners Ferry area.

He worked in sawmills, including Crown Pacific, for 28 years. He loved the outdoors and lived to hunt and fish.

Sid is survived by his wife, Sandra Hurst, of Bonners Ferry; his sons, Wayne T. Hurst of Bonners Ferry, Brandon Hurst of Bonners Ferry, Mark Hurst of Lewiston, Id.; daughter Tonya Evans of Bonners Ferry; step-daughters, Angela Voegele and Heidi Myers of Bonners Ferry; and step-son, Darrell Voegele, also of Bonners Ferry; one brother, Carrell Hurst of Sommerville, Ore.; one sister, Velda Shierling, of St. Augustine, Fla.; his mother, Lois Hurst, of LaGrande, Ore.; and several grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, Carrell Hurst.

Services were held Thursday, July 4, 2002 at the Free Methodist Church in Bonners Ferry, Id.
