

Bonnors Ferry Herald Tuesday, October 21, 2002

Hargreaves, Pearl, 83 passed away on Oct. 22, 2002 at the Extended Care of the Community Hospital in Bonnors Ferry, Idaho. Memorial services will be held in Pensacola, Fla.

Pearl was born on Jan. 17, 1919 in Pensacola, Fla. To Robert and Jessie (Pameter) Horlick. She spent her childhood and attended schools in Pensacola area.

In 1941 she married Navy pilot Royce Hubert. One daughter was born while they lived in Pensacola. After WWII, they moved to Lake Oswego, Ore. where they remained until 1961.

During that time, Pearl was a full-time homemaker and mother. She was involved in church and local activities as well as maintaining a busy farm life.

After divorcing Royce, she returned to Pensacola where she worked as a private secretary at Owsley Lumber Company for many years.

In 1969 she married Bill Hargreaves in Pensacola, Fla. They were members of the Perdido Bay United Methodist Church. They enjoyed fishing in the Gulf and were members of Grand Legion Yacht Club, Pensacola Kiwanis and other civic organizations.

Pearl moved to the Extended Care in Bonnors Ferry, Idaho in 1999 to be near her daughter.

Survivors include her husband, Bill Hargreaves of Pensacola, Fla.; daughter Linda J. Draxlir of Bonnors Ferry, Idaho; step-daughter, Roberta Kimball of Pensacola, Fla.; step-son, Bill Hargreaves Jr., of Margate, Fla.; grandsons Morgan, Isaac, Aaron and Lewis Draxlir; and great-grandchildren Gage, Dinah, Judah, Jasius, Hannah Rachel and Esther.