

Bonnors Ferry Herald
Thursday, Dec. 15, 2005 pg 12-A

Edith L Jackson, 87

Edith L. Jackson, 87, passed away on Saturday, Dec. 10, 2005 in Sandpoint. Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 17 at the Pack River Cemetery.

Edith was born on May 17, 1918 in Shenandoah, Iowa the daughter of Edwin and Emma (Thompson) Gudgel.

She met the love of her life and married M. D. Jackson on June 22, 1936 in Rockport, Missouri. They lived in Shenandoah, Iowa until moving to Sandpoint in 1947.

Edith was active in the Pack River Grange #303. She was a loving wife and mother of two, son Bob and daughter Judy.

As a wife of a farmer she was a very busy lady, feeding hay hands, helping with the farm, and canning and baking.

After M. D. (Delbert) passed away in 1993 she moved from the farm in Selle to Sandpoint. She was a very independent lady and lived by herself until health problems developed. She then moved to Life Care Center of Sandpoint in February 2005.

She is survived by son Bob Jackson, Naples; daughter Judy (Don) Barton, of Bonnors Ferry; four grandchildren Marvin (Sherr) Parson, of Coeur d'Alene, Marcy (Dwayne) McNair, of Naples, Becky Jackson, and Gary Jackson; four great-grandchildren Chad Parson, of Coeur d'Alene, Markell McNair, of Kootenai, Cody Parson, of Coeur d'Alene, and Branden Bergman, of Naples; several nieces, nephews and many, many friends.

Edith was preceded in death by her parents, husband of 57 years Delbert, a sister and a brother.

Mom, you've earned your wings and now you can fly and be with Dad. We love you and miss you.