

Roy Avery Jones, Jr., 66

Roy Avery Jones, Jr. passed away at home in Lovelock, Nev. June 17, 2004. He was born Nov. 23, 1937 in Spokane, Wash.

Roy served in the U.S. Army as a military policeman. He was stationed at Oakland, Calif., then Shell, France, receiving the Good Conduct Medal, Expert Badge and Sharpshooters badges in both pistol and rifle.

Upon his return to his hometown of Bonners Ferry, Idaho, he married Judith Ann McVey, daughter of Orval and Ruth McVey.

Over the years, Roy had been a jack-of-all-trades and master of them all—mechanic, police officer, logger, long haul trucker, all positions involving mining (including mine/mill plant supervisor).

Roy moved to Lovelock, Nev. about 15 years ago with his wife, Judy, and started hauling for Fundis. While with them, he received the two-year and three-year safety awards as well as a special embroidered jacket for his outstanding performance and safe driving.

He retired from Fundis in 2002 due to health issues. His friends, family and acquaintances remember him as a joker; he always knew how to lighten up any situation. He was a wonderful husband and father of three.

Roy was preceded in death by his wife, Judith Ann Jones, son Kevin Avery Jones, sister Doris Thompson, father Roy Avery Jones, Sr., and mother Ada T. Jones, grandson Jereme Michael Avery Jones, great-grandson Draven Lee Hilliard.

He is survived by his son, Kenneth LeRoy Jones, and wife Joy, granddaughter Nicole and three great-grandchildren, Jordan, Zachery and Brianna, all of Salt Lake City, Utah; daughter Ginger-Sue Hilliard of Lovelock, Nev., grandson Jason Hilliard and wife Cynthia, great-grandson Nicolas of Carbon Hill, Ala., granddaughter Shandi Hayburn, her husband Owen and their son-on-the-way of Lovelock, Nev., sister Judy Trice and husband Jim of Bonners Ferry, Id., sister Sue Felch and husband Fred of Spokane, Wash., as well as a plethora of nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Saturday, July 17, 2004 at 2 p.m. in the Grandview Cemetery, Bonners Ferry, Idaho.
