FINAL SERVICES Held On Monday For Anna Kinnear

Final services for Mrs. Anna Marie Kinnear, 80, who passed away at the Community hospital last Thursday afternoon after a lingering illness, were held from the Morse-Funeral Home on Monday afternoon at two o'clock with Rev. Neils Christensen officiating. Members of Syringa Temple No. 4, Pythian Sisters, of which the deceased was a charter member, had charge of the commitment services. Burial was in the family plot in Grandview cemetery.

Mrs. A. G. Edmondson sang two solos, "In the Garden" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" with Mrs. Ferne Crowley accompanying at the organ.

The pallbearers were J. H. McNally, A. P. Zimmerman, Dayton Douglas, John Chervenell, J. H. Cave and W. J. Nixon.

The deceased, who was born in Schoenthal, Russia, July 13, 1871, came to this country with her parents when four years of age, the family locating near Odessa, Wash. She was one of the pioneer residents of Bonners Ferry, having resided here since 1893. Her husband, W. L. Kinnear, pioneer Bonners Ferry merchant and business man, passed away here in June, 1949. She was also a charter member of the Bonners Ferry Readers' club.

She is survived by one son, Harry B. Kinnear, Bonners Ferry, and one daughter, Mrs. Phoebe Prell, Spokane, Wash.; four grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Among those here from out-of-the-county for the services were Mrs. Phoebe Prell and Mrs. Nellie Eddy, Spokane, and Mrs. Gladys Bittinger, Portland, Ore.
