Harry B. Kinnear, assessor of Boundary county for many years and a resident since 1892, died early last Thursday morning in the Bonners Ferry hospital after an extended illness. He was 72 years old at the time of his death.

Harry B. Kinnear was born July 22, 1886, at Colfax, Wash., and the family moved to Bonners Ferry in 1892 to make their home. In 1930 he was elected as Boundary county assessor and served in this capacity until 1956 when ill health forced his retirement.
