

Daniel P. Klick, 67

Daniel P. Klick, 67, of Boise, Idaho and formerly of Bonners Ferry, went home to be with Jesus on Nov. 21, 2003 while his loving family surrounded him at his home.

A private family service will be held at Alden-Waggoner Funeral Chapel in Boise. A public service will be held at 2 p.m., Dec. 6 at the United Methodist Church in Bonners Ferry.

He was born April 7, 1936 in North Annville Township, Penn. He attended high school there and then served in the United States Air Force for four years before attending Eastern Washington University.

In 1960 he married Kathryn Lea Sweat of Chewelah, Wash.

After Dan sold his ownership of the retail businesses, he began serving his community. He narrated for local sporting events as his wife video taped and replayed these events on the local TV station for the local citizens of Bonners Ferry.

He volunteered his time and services for seniors who had Parkinson's and Alzheimer's disease. He was a Master Gardener and participated with their help line program. Dan sang in the Community Choir since inception, enjoyed traveling to Mexico for mission trips and in the winter shoveled snow for his neighbors. He gave so much of himself to so many people, touching and blessing countless lives. We all love and miss him dearly.

Dan and Kathy moved to Boise in May of 2003 to be closer to family. Dan is survived by his lovely wife Kathryn and their three children: Julie Gustaveson of Boise Idaho, Gary Klick (wife Lauri) of Lake Stevens, Wash., and David Klick, (wife Kathryn) of Boise, Idaho; a sister from Harrisburg, Penn.; and nine wonderful grandchildren: Jesse, David Jr., Beau, Justin, Trevor, Alex, Rachael, Victoria and Amanda.
