Foy Krause passes

Services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Pines Cemetery, at Opportunity, Wash., for Foy W. Krause, 93, a longtime Bonnors Ferry resident who died December 20 at St. Anthony's Hospital, Pendleton, Ore.

Mrs. Krause was born July 31, 1889, in Virginia. She lived in Bonnors Ferry from 1906 to 1942 and lived in Spokane for 31 years before moving to Pendleton in December, 1979.

During World War II she worked as a machinist in an airplane factory. Following the war she worked for a brief period at Fairchild Air Force Base.

She is survived by three daughters, Pauline Garrelston, of Pendleton; Doris Freeman, of Bellevue, Wash., and LaBerta Crum, of Spokane.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, and 7 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a son, Lester, in 1963.

Fred W. Andrews, D.P.M.
