

Bonnars Ferry Herald Nov. 20, 2008

OBITUARIES

Caroline 'Careen' Irene Eisenhower Kresal, 65

Caroline "Careen" Irene Eisenhower Kresal, 65, passed away in her sleep Friday, Nov. 14, 2008, at her home in Moyie Springs.

She was born Oct. 4, 1943, in Lusk, Wyo., to Floyd and Clara Sommerfeld Eisenhower. Caroline grew up and attended schools in Gregory, S.D., and Sioux City, Iowa.

She married John Kresal in 1975 in Casper, Wyo.

They moved to Moyie Springs in 2004.

mals.

She also worked for the federal government for a time.

Caroline was a talented woman — an artist in her and her husband raised llamas, which she loved. Caroline had a passion for any and all ani-own right. She spun her own thread and made many afghans, rugs and beautiful items for family.

Her hobbies were crossword puzzles, camping and fishing. She really enjoyed the beautiful country here.

Survivors include her husband in Moyie Springs; a brother, Kenneth Perrin of Tucson, Ariz.; a niece Charie Noble and her husband, Ty, of Yakima, Wash.; a stepson, Angelo Hill of New Zealand; and cousins Pat Howard of New Zealand, Wilodyne Roberts and family of Casper, and Lana Kay, Harlie Hanson and family, and Deloris and George Roberson and family, all of Sandpoint.

Caroline will be missed by family, neighbors and friends.

Family and friends can sign Caroline's book at www.bonnarsferryfuneralhome.com. Bonners Ferry Funeral Home handled arrangements.