

Bonnors Ferry Herald

Thur. Jan 3, 1974, Pg 11 Col 1

Annie Ladley

Funeral mass was said yesterday morning in Spokane for Annie Ladley, last surviving member of the Bonnors Fry pioneer family in the Bonnors Ferry area. She passed away at her home there on December 29, according to a Spokane paper.

She is the widow of a longtime photographer in this area. She is thought to be owner of a small parcel of property in the area of the U.P.R.R. overpass in West Bonnors Ferry.

Interment was in Fairmount Memorial Park with Ball and Dodd Funeral Home in charge.

She is survived by one daughter, Irene Guiles, Medical Lake, and several nieces and nephews including Christine Savage, Sandpoint, and Lorraine Misiaszek and James, George, Arthur, Frank Fry, and Raymond Ewing, all Spokane.