

Larry Linnemeyer, 64

5-16-2002

Bonnars Ferry
Herald

Larry Lee Linnemeyer, 64, died May 5, 2002 at Coeur d'Alene. He was born February 4, 1938 to Carl and Shirley (Curless) Linnemeyer at Curtis, Nebraska.

He grew up at Bonnars Ferry. As a young man Larry worked for the Great Northern Railroad.

In 1959 he married Myrna Alavana at Coeur d'Alene and they made their home at Bonnars Ferry.

The couple moved to St. Maries in 1962 where Larry went to work for Regulus Stud Mill. In 1968 he went to work for Potlatch Corp. St. Maries Complex as a heavy equipment operator. He worked for Potlatch for more than 30 years, retiring March 1, 2001.

Larry loved his work. In addition to working at Potlatch, Larry started his own business in the logging industry in 1973.

In 1989, he and his son formed watching them in their many sports activities.

He was a member of the Idaho Associated Logging Contractors and the St. Maries High School Booster Club.

Larry is survived by his wife, Myrna at the family home, his son, Jack Linnemeyer and grandson Luke; his daughter and son-in-law, Lara and Curt Carr, and grandsons Lance, Scott and Troy of Rathdrum; his mother, Shirley of Bonnars Ferry; brothers, Max Linnemeyer and Ronald Linnemeyer, both of St. Maries; Art Linnemeyer of Bonnars Ferry and Steve Linnemeyer of Baker City, Ore.; sisters Karlene MacDonald of Bonnars Ferry and Bonnie Brown of Cusick, Wash.

Funeral services were May 10. The family suggests memorials to the St. Maries little League Association, c/o Mary Ann Bailey, P. O. Box 282, St. Maries, ID.