OBITUARIES

George Lloyd Liverance, 64

(George) Lloyd Robert Liverance (64) passed away on March 5, 2003 at the Community Hospital in Bonners Ferry, Idaho. Private Services will be held.

George was born on March 12, 1938 in Wairton, Ontario, Canada to William and Mary Liverance. He attended schools in the Wairton area after which he moved to Alaska, where he worked in the oil fields for many years.

He later moved to Edmonton, Alberta in the early 1960's where he worked in the oil fields. In the late 1960's he moved to Creston, B.C., where he worked as an equipment operator.

On June 5, 1971 he married Lorraine (Lori) Lindsay as they made their home in the Bonners Ferry, Idaho area. They started a septic tank business, and he operated a backhoe company. They also built the Liverance Trailer Court.

He spent several years working in the oil field in Alaska until 1988 when he retired in Alaska. Upon returning to Bonners Ferry, he started producing Blake's Old Fashion Dressing. He has resided at his Bonners Ferry home until his death.

George enjoyed his garden, and the hobby that he loved was just working.

Survivors include his wife Lori, of Bonners Ferry, ID; daughter Sally Jo Baker of Homer, AK; son, Mike Baker of MT; three brothers; four sisters; two grandchildren

George was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, and two brothers. The family suggests memorials be sent to the Wishing Star Foundation.
