

Andrew J. Manley, 27

Andrew (Andy) J. Manley, 27, passed away on Feb. 15, 2004 at the Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane, Wash.

Funeral Services were held on Friday, Feb. 20, 2004 in the Bonnors Ferry Funeral Home in Bonnors Ferry, Idaho with interment following in the Grandview Cemetery.

Andy was born on May 27, 1976 in Fort Carson, Colorado to the delight of his parents James and Mary. After living in Colorado for three years the family relocated to their home town of Piedmont, S.D.

In 1982 the family moved to Idaho and resided in the Moyie Springs, area. Andy attended Evergreen School, Valley View Elementary and Bonnors Ferry High School where he lettered in wrestling. Andy worked for various tree nurseries in the county, the last being Bremmers

Nursery in the Moyie Springs area. He also helped many of his neighbors in the area. Andy loved the outdoors, he loved to look for horns, explore old mining sites in the area and especially fishing. In the late 1990's Andy was diagnosed with Addison's disease with which he struggled with and ultimately caused his death.

He was a happy giving person and would do just about anything for anybody. He is a beloved son and brother and is at peace.

Andy is survived by his parents, Jim Manley and Mary Knutson, brothers: Abe Manley, Joey Manley and David Willems; grandmother Helen Gould; and many aunts and uncles. He was preceded in death by his brother, Chris, and grandparents Avery Gould and Robert and Olive Manley.
