Pauline M. Matson

Pauline M. Matson, formerly Pauline Stockdale, died recently at her Vancouver home. She was born June 2, 1918 in Prague, Okla. and lived in Bonners Ferry with her former husband Ray Stockdale, now deceased, from 1948-1956.

She is survived by her husband, William J. Matson, in Vancouver; her son Danny Stockdale of Bend, Ore.; her daughters Loretta Jimenez, of Reno, Nev.; and Linda Woodard and Linda Mothershed, both of Vancouver; step-son Charles R.

Stockdale of Bonners Ferry and William Matson of Vancouver; stepdaughters Ann Marie Allen of Bonners Ferry and Betty Jean Varney of Idaho; brother Leonard Overly of Ganado, Ariz.; sisters Mina Harris of Seattle and Ollie Harris of Dayton, Wash.; and 25 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A funeral service for Mrs. Matson was held at the Memorial Gardens Funeral Chapel in Vancouver and was officiated by Chaplain Robert Kunz. She was buried in Evergreen Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

While she lived in Bonners Ferry, she operated Ray's Shoe Repair with her husband Ray Stockdale. Her daughter Loretta attended school in Bonners Ferry.

Mrs. Matson had been living in Vancouver for 13 years, but considered northern Idaho her home, her daughter Loretta said.

Memorials may be made to the Oncology-Supportive Care Unit, Southwest Washington Hospitals, P.O. Box 1600, Vancouver, Wash. 98668.
