

Bonnors Ferry Herald

May 22, 2003

Zada McLaury, 92

Zada Ann McLaury, 92, of Post Falls, Idaho, died Wednesday, May 14, 2003 at LaCrosse Health and Rehab Center in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

She was born on Nov. 27, 1910 in Colville, Wash. to Zenas and Adelaine (Pishion) Black. She graduate from Colville High School in 1930. She married Erwin C. McLaury on Jan. 18, 1931 in Colville.

In 1936 they moved to Bonnors Ferry, Idaho and they lived at the Continental Mine for a year while Erwin was working there. Zada worked as a cook at the Northside School and for the Forest Service for man years.

She also worked as an aide at the Restorium for a number of years, retiring in 1988. She moved to Post Falls in 1992 to be closer to her daughter Joyce.

She was a member of Christ the King Lutheran Church in Coeur d'Alene. She loved to fish and to gather with family at Thanksgiving.

Zada is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Erwin L. and Janette McLaury of Eureka, Mont. and daughter and son-in-law, Wilma Joyce and Don Kramer of Post Falls, Id. She is also survived by numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, daughter and son-in-law, Janet M. and Ronald Marcy, brother, Lee Black, sister, Lenore Switzer and two great-grandsons.