Accident claims Norman Mideke

Norman Mideke, 75, passed away Sept. 28 following an accident in the wood lot at his home in Paradise Valley.

He was born Jan. 8, 1911 to Frederick and Grace Mideke at Grandview, Wash. and was one of a family of six. He spent his early years there, and then the family moved to Plummer where he completed his schooling and took up farming.

He was married to Wilma Brown on Aug. 19, 1948. After approximately 16 years of living in Plummer, they moved to the coast and resided for about five years in Sequim, Wash. From there they came to Bonners Ferry, purchasing a farm in Paradise Valley in 1970.

He is survived by his wife Wilma, at home, a daughter, Joyce Flower of Plummer and a son, Bryce of Bonners Ferry, five grandsons, a brother, Louis of Bellingham and a sister, Edith Dow of Coeur d'Alene. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and a sister.

He was well respected by the community. He was a craftsman with a servant's heart; his love for family and friends being evidenced by the work of his hands. With an enjoyment for the outdoors from his youth, he especially loved the Cascade Mountains and the solitude of a mountain peak.

Services were held in Bonners Ferry on Oct. 3.
