Virginia Rose Moore, 71

Virginia Rose Moore, born Oct. 25, 1932 to parents James Frederick and Dorothy T. (Mansfield) Fox, in Kremming, Colo., went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Oct. 23, 2004, while being cared for at Life Cure Center of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. A private family memorial service was held at her daughter Bonnie's home in Rathdrum, Idaho, on the evening of Oct. 25, 2004.

Virginia is survived by her eight children: Shelley, Rick, Cindy, Dan, Shannon, and triplets, Anna, Bonnie, Colleen; 14 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren and a sister, Frieda E. McGlocklin.

Virginia was preceded in death by her parents, husband Chester Donohoe, and granddaughter Tara Lee Donohoe.

Virginia, her sister, and parents lived in Colorado prior to moving to a mink and cattle ranch in the Moyie Valley near Eastport in 1944. Virginia attended a one-room country school and graduated from Bonniers Ferry High School as Salutatorian. She received a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Idaho in 1954, then in 1979 returned to the University of Idaho to complete her Law degree, becoming an accomplished Attorney while being a single mom of her six youngest children.

Virginia led an amazing and varied life including endeavors such as library aide/medical records clerk, bank teller, typist secretary treasurer of a water district, census taker, social worker, hod carrier, business manager, rancher/farmer, private attorney, prosecuting attorney, restaurant owner, then while struggling with her own deteriorating health, on oxygen, became a Certified nursing assistant to take care of her mother until her death, and several other elderly and disabled patients. Until her own health forced her to discontinue a lifetime of hard work and caring for others.

Virginia's many hobbies include her vast love of horses, gardening, reading, and spending time with her children and grandchildren. She also enjoyed attending, and spending time with her church family at Real Life Ministries of Post Falls.

Yates Funeral Home, Coeur d'Alene Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
