James Moran, 41, passes

James F. Moran, 41, died on August 18 at his home near Naples. Graveside funeral services were held on Monday, August 22, at the Paradise Valley Cemetery at 11 a.m. with Rev. Greenslitt officiating.

Jim was born on October 16, 1941 in Providence, Rhode Island to Mae and James Moran. He moved to Fitchburg, Mass., as a very young child. He attended Catholic schools there after which he served in the U.S. Army in Germany.

He then moved to Colorado in 1968 and to Idaho in 1969. He has worked for Pack River and later WI since July of 1969. On May 15, 1971 he married Ruth Clinton in Coeur d'Alene. He has resided in Bonners Ferry until his death.

Jim loved to hunt, fish and hike in the woods.

He was a loving husband and father and he leaves his wife, Ruth; daughters, Christeena, Virgie, and Rebecca; sons, James G., Jason and John; his mother, Mae A. Moran; sister and brother-in-laws, Mike Bazzel of San Diego, Calif.; Aunt Odill Nadeau of Fitchburg, Mass.; Uncle George Moran of Fitchburg, Mass.; Aunt Nan O'Malley of Davis, Calif.; and many cousins.

He was founder and president of Little Lincoln Christian Academy. He was misunderstood by some and loved by many. He had a great love for Indians.
