John Edward Moran, 92

John Edward Moran, 92, passed away in Bonnors Ferry on Dec. 25, 2004.

Private family services will be held.

John was born on April 2, 1912 in Inglewood, Calif., the son of Edward and Emma Moran. He graduated from high school in Inglewood and joined the U.S. Army and served during World War II in the Philippines.

Following the war, he worked for Northrup Aircraft Company as a machinist, developing specialized tools. For health reasons, he retired in 1972. He moved to Moyie Springs in 1997.

He enjoyed boating, traveling in his motor home, gardening and protecting his fruit trees from the deer and moose.

He is survived by two sons;

John William (and Karen) Moran, of Maple Valley, Wash. and Allen Edward (and Aggie) Moran, of Moyie Springs; six grandchildren, Lisa (and Tom) Potts and Laura (and Chris) Arsers, of Seattle, Lynn (and Russ) Curley, of Anacortes, Wash., Barbara (and Greg) Farish, of Missoula, Mont., Dwayne Barker, of Roy, Utah, and Donny (and Angela) Baker, of Bonnors Ferry. He is also survived by five great-grandchildren; Matthew, Kayla, Gabriel, Adam and Eric, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife Erna; infant daughter Jeanette; and three sisters, Mary, Beatrice and Ruth.

Arrangements are under the care of Bonnors Ferry Funeral Home.
