

Bonnors Ferry Herald, Thursday, April 10, 2008

Karen Lee McCoy, 52

Former Bonnors Ferry resident, Karen Lee McCoy, 52, died Monday, March 31, 2008, in Shelton, Wash.

Karen was born May 23, 1955, in Ukiah, Calif.

She married Christopher Robert McCoy on Dec. 2, 1979, in Reno, Nev.

They lived in Happy Camp, Calif., from 1986 to 1989; Greenfield, Calif., from 1989 to 1992; Bonnors Ferry from 1992 to 2004; and Shelton since 2004.

Karen worked as bookkeeper in accounts receivable and human resources for 20 years in California, Idaho and Washington.

She enjoyed photography, camping, traveling in Canada, B.C., and Western United States, gardening and volunteer work.

Karen was involved with the Society for Creative Anachronism for 10 years.

She was a devoted, loving wife, mother and friend.

Karen is survived by her husband in Shelton; daughters Megan Lee Schultz of Coeur d'Alene and Darcy Lee McCoy of Olympia, Wash., a brother, Gary Robert Myers of Ukiah; a granddaughter, Kaitlin Marie Schulz of Coeur d'Alene; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins in Ukiah.

Karen is preceded in death by her parents Robert and Jacquelyn Myers and sister Lynne Myers.

Memorial donations may be sent to National Alliance on Mental Illness, 4305 Lacey Blvd., Suite 5, Lacey, Wash., 98503. The Web site is www.nami.org.

Arrangements are under the direction of McComb Funeral Home in Shelton.