Louis Popp Dies

According to work received by Mr. Ignatz Weil of Sandpoint, the first of the week, Luis

---

Popp, one of the first settlers of this county and well known about Naples, where he had a ranch and conducted a general store for many years, died in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 31, of acute appendicitis.

The deceased sold part of his property at Naples and left a few months ago for the east with his wife. His death came suddenly, the day following the attack of illness.
