Henry Straub

Henry Straub, 92, passed away on Sept. 26, 2007, at his home in Bonnors Ferry.

A time of remembrance was held 2 p.m. Oct. 1, 2007, at Henry's home at 7136 Cedar St. Private burial was in Grandview Cemetery.

Henry was born April 11, 1915, in Endicott, Wash., to Henry and Eliza Katherine Heintz Straub, who came to America by boat from Straub, Russia. He moved as a child with his parents to St. Maries, where Henry graduated from St. Maries High School. He then attended the University of Idaho. Henry served in the Army Air Corp during World War II and was stationed as a Bombardier in England.

After his discharge he operated Straub and Sons in St. Maries. Throughout his life he worked as a salesman and real estate agent.

Henry married Adaline Brown on June 25, 1949, in St. Maries.

He moved to California in 1957 and Lake Arrowhead, Calif., in 1968, where he founded Straub's Arrowhead Lake Real Estate.

In 1995 Henry retired to Bonnors Ferry.

He was the beloved husband of his wife and loving father of a son and daughter.

Survivors include sisters Sarah Mason of St. Maries, and Clara Erickson and her husband, Eugene, of Wenatchee, Wash.; a son Jason Straub and his wife, Christine, of Orange, Calif.; daughter Carla Box and her husband, Denny, of Crestline, Calif.; and a grandson, Tyler Straub of Tracy, Calif.

Henry was preceded in death by his wife, brother Victor Straub; and sisters Leah Frame, Rachel Knopp, Martha Mercer and Joyce Straub.
