

individual LPN can join the organization. When the local membership dropped below five, the local LPNs were forced to drop out of the organization.

The licensed practical nurse differs from the registered nurse in that the RN usually owns a degree and has had several years of college. The LPN can become licensed after passing state exams following only a year of college. On the job, LPNs work under the direct supervision of the RN and physician.

The local LPNs did not pick

"That's one of the prime reasons we want to get back in," noted Ms. Ross.

Other benefits listed by the organization included access to the LPN newsletter, consultant service to state and local associations, promotion of educational programs for members, low cost insurance, fellowship and social contact with other members, recognition and pay advantages and the preservation of the identity of the LPN.

Anyone with a question on the coming tea or the membership drive may contact Ms. Ross after 3:30 p.m. at 267-7126.

Obituary

*Bonniers Ferry Herald
Thur Oct 4, 1979 pg 10*

George Thompson

George H. Thompson died on September 19 in rural Naples. Memorial services were held on Saturday, September 22, in the Trinity Lutheran Church with Rev. Larry Nelson officiating.

George was born in Naples on June 24, 1923 to Marie and Peter Thompson. He was raised and educated in Bonners Ferry and after graduation he went to Alaska for two years after which he joined the U.S. Army in November of 1943. When he returned from the service he worked in logging interests in the Bonners Ferry area. On May 3, 1948 he married Dorothy Reed in Bonners Ferry where they resided until his death. George retired in 1974 due to health problems.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy, of Bonners Ferry; two sons, Steven of Naples and David of Bonners Ferry; and one daughter, Kris Casey of Spokane. He is also survived by one sister, Pearl Johnson of Spokane; three grand children and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials have been established to the Trinity Lutheran Church or the Northwest Kidney Center in Seattle.

Metropolitan Mortgage & Securities
now has available
Investment
Debentures
9%

Metropolitan's new issue of Investment Debentures, Series I is available from $100 Minimum with 3 to 10 year maturities at the interest rate of 9%. Interest is compounded semiannually from date of purchase or paid monthly, or periodically. The effective annual

L-P Takes Timber Sale

The First Guide Meridian Timber Sale was offered by oral auction on Monday, September 17, according to Michael C. Reeb, Area Supervisor, Idaho Department of Lands.