

Funeral Services For Mrs. Jennie Thompson are Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Thompson were to be held yesterday in Mohall, N. Dak., with interment to follow in Grano cemetery there. Mrs. Thompson, a resident of Boundary county for 14 years, passed away at Community hospital August 8th. She had been a patient

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Serving as best man was Mike McKean of Aberdeen, Wash., and ushers were Bryon Rudenick of Seattle and Peter Ugstad, brother of the bride.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The four-tiered wedding cake was baked, decorated and served by Mrs. Lester Poston. Punch was poured by Judy Poston and coffee by Mrs. Chris Taft. Mrs. Myrtle Maggi, Miss Diane Skarr and Miss Sharon McKean were in charge of the gift table, and Claudia Branson had the guest book.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside at 726 Dale St., Woodland, Wash. The bride will teach music at Amboy, Wash., and the bridegroom will teach history at Longview high school.

The Herald — Bonners Ferry, Idaho
Thursday, August 15, 1968 — Page 7

at the hospital and nursing wing for 21 months.

She was born on November 16, 1882, in Sauk Center, Minn., the daughter of David and Altha Walker Geyer. She married Elias Thompson there in 1901 and in 1902 the couple moved to North Dakota where they homesteaded. He preceded her in death in 1953 and the following year she moved to Bonners Ferry.

Eight of her 12 children survive her, including four sons, Roy and Wyman of Moyie Springs, David of Great Falls, and Lester of Puyallup, Wash.; and four daughters, Mrs. Daisy Olson of Orofino, Mrs. Violet Teigen of Maxbass, N. Dak., Mrs. Fannie Mace of Eureka, Calif., and Mrs. Inez Bertelson of Everett, Wash.; also 36 grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren and several great great grandchildren.

A short service for the family was held last Saturday at Hillcrest Memorial chapel, with Rev. Darrel Iwerks officiating.