Mrs. Geo. Wade Passes Away

Prominent Bonnors Ferry Matron Ill But Few Weeks

Mrs. Geo. C. Wade passed away here Friday morning about 7:30 o'clock, following an illness of several weeks from the Crouch chapel Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. A. H. Morton, Methodist Minister of Sandpoint, officiating. Interment was in Grandview cemetery. The pallbearers were W. O. Brockway, T. J. Helmer, Geo. R. Causton, C. H. Cleveland, Roy Oxford and J. W. Reid.

Mrs. Wade is survived by her husband and two sons, Glen F. and Raymond, and two brothers, Frank E. Glenn of Seattle, Wash., and Geo. R. Glenn of Lakeside, Ore. The former was here to attend the funeral services.

Emma Jane Glenn was born at Cottage Grove, Minn., on October 10, 1876. She was married to Geo. C. Wade at Spokane, Wash., on October 10, 1916. She had been a resident of Bonnors Ferry for many years.

Mrs. Wade was a devout member of the Methodist church, and an active member of the Ladies Aid society of that denomination. She was a devoted wife and mother, a kind and sympathetic friend, and will be greatly missed. The Herald joins with the entire community in extending heartfelt sympathy to her family.
