Kassandra was born on March 7, 1987 in Sandpoint to Doris David of Bonners Ferry and David Ron Weaselhead Sr. of Ronan, Mont. Her paternal grandparents were Mathias and Mary David of Bonners Ferry and her maternal grandparents were Joe Weaselhead of Browning, Mont. and Mataline Barnaby of Ronan, Mont. Her great grandmother was Alice Shottanana of Tobacco Plains, B.C., Canada, and her great great grandmother was Sophie Yellowstar Kepska David of Bonners Ferry.

She is survived by her parents and paternal grandparents; one sister, Crystal Weaselhead; two brothers David Weaselhead Jr. and Patrick James Weaselhead; several aunts Velma Babe, Dianne, and Becky David, all of Bonners Ferry, Violet, Betty, Joanne, and Pebbles Weaselhead; and several uncles John, Dusty, Arnold, Gerald and Dalen Weaselhead of Ronan, Mont., and many relatives. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents.

Kassandra was raised in Bonners Ferry and had lived with her Auntie Dianne David and grandmother Mary David for part of her childhood. She had loved gymnastics, and dancing at Pow Wows, and attending cultural events. She had a large extended family and especially looked forward to family birthday dinners, and gatherings. She enjoyed snow boarding, riding the Skidoo, fishing and listening to her music, and especially enjoyed attending stickgame tournaments with her mom Doris, or dad Ron. She was very compassionate and always had a hug for everybody. She had many friends from all walks of life and befriended everyone. In her short stay on earth, she experienced a lot of travel and opportunities to meet many people. Being a young adult, she also experienced the desire to experiment in unhealthy social activities. Which lead to addictions she couldn't overcome, as with so many young people today. Kassandra will forever have a special place in our hearts, and knowing she is with our Creator gives us the strength to go on. 'Til we meet again Kasan, we will forever keep you in our hearts. And we will always be here for one another. "Anwanikit."
