Services Are Held For Frank B. White

The community joined Friday afternoon of last week in paying respects to Frank B. White, 70, retired pioneer merchant who passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 11. Final services were held at the Morse Funeral Home with George R. Ames, lay reader of St. Mary's Episcopal Mission, officiating. Interment was in Grandview cemetery.

Stores were closed during the services and a moment of silence was observed at the Rex theatre during the evening performance.

The Hi-Lo trio, composed of Mrs. Bill Nieland, Mrs. E. E. Saunders and Mrs. A. G. Edmondson, sang the "Lord's Prayer" and R. N. Soderling, accompanied by Mrs. Ferne Crowley at the organ, sang "In the Garden."

The pallbearers were E. J. Doyle, Lester Plato, Simon McDonald, W. O. Rosebaugh, T. J. Helmer and H. B. Kinnear.

Mrs. Nial Babcock of Tacoma, sister of Mrs. White, was among those attending the services.
