Gloria Wilson, 73

Gloria (Turner) Wilson died of natural causes March 18, 2003 at her home in La Pine, Ore. Memorial services will take place when her family gathers together in northern Idaho this July.

Gloria was born in May, Idaho in 1930 and was raised in southern Idaho areas. She married Dan Wilson in 1951 in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and raised two children in Moyie Springs, Idaho.

She later moved to Anchorage, Alaska to be near her children and spent the last 12 years in LaPine, Ore. near her daughter's family.

Gloria was a homemaker who enjoyed reading, gardening, puzzles, country music and her grandchildren.

Survivors include two daughters, Terri Barker of LaPine, Ore. and Danette Schlapfer of Anchorage, Ak.; three sisters, Luella Witt of Boise, Id., Dwyla Pressler of Blackfoot, Id., and Maxine Jackson of Monks Corner, S.C.; and three grandchildren, Joshua and Jeremy Barker of LaPine, Ore. and Danika Schlapfer of Anchorage, Ak. Her parents, three brothers and four sisters preceded her in death.
