James Wylie, 16

James (Jimmy) Albert Lee Wylie was born Nov 16, 1990 to Jerry and Robin Wylie of Seattle, Wash. He passed away Dec. 11, 2006, in Bonnors Ferry.

Idaho Memorial Services were held on Saturday, Dec. 16, 2006 at 3 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Jerry moved Jimmy and big brother, Jerry, to Moyie Springs in 1997 to be near family. The three Wylie's spent many hours exploring Boundary County and learning to hunt and fish in their new surroundings (no small feat for city boys).

Jimmy attended Bonnors Ferry High and was into the sports.

Baseball, football, basketball and really excelled in wrestling. Got a lot of pointers from brother Jerry. Jimmy loved motorcycles, fast cars, loud music, girls and hanging out with his best buds Dee Curtis, Tim Billingsly, Joe Sanborn, Keith Allenberg, Derek Crum and friends to numerous to mention.

Hardheaded and soft hearted, Jimmy had a giving spirit, an awesome smile and a strong belief in his immortality. Bet that changed when his grandma Judie met him in Heaven.

Jimmy was preceded in death by his grandparents Albert (Jerry) Wylie and Judith Wylie Murphy, great-grandparents Opal and Marcus (Mikie) Michelson, and Jack (Papa) Wylie.

Jimmy is survived by parents Jerry Wylie and Robin Wylie; brother, Jerry Wylie Jr; grandparents Jan and David Murphy Sr., Aunties Marlene (Chuck) Presser and Tandy (Brett) Murphy; uncles, Roy (Mary) Wylie, Dave (Jan) Murphy Jr., Ed Murphy and Tom Wylie. Cousins; David III, Cari and Clara, Michael and Ronda, Andrea, Tom and Katie, Christa, Jacob and Brock, Kendra and Shane, Brianna and Danica, Lyle, Carl and Savannah, and Amber and Jared.
